

PUBLIC AND PRODUCTS LIABILITY INSURANCE POLICY

INDEMNITY CLAUSE

The Companies will pay to or on behalf of the Insured up to the applicable Limit of Liability and above the Excess specified in the Schedule all sums which the Insured shall incur a civil liability to pay by way of Compensatory Damages in respect of Personal Injury or Property Damage happening during the Period of Insurance, where such Personal Injury or Property Damage is alleged to have been caused by an Occurrence during the Period of Insurance in connection with the Insured's Business.

We will indemnify You against claims for Compensation in respect of Injury or Damage happening during the Period of Insurance and caused by an event in connection with Your Business.

Our liability in respect of any one Occurrence will not exceed the Sum Insured. Where such an event has been caused, the Insurer will honour the claim only if it has first taken place after the Retroactive Date.

SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENTS CLAUSE

In addition, with respect only to liability falling within the indemnity provided by the INDEMNITY CLAUSE, the Companies will also make Supplementary Payments as provided by this SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENTS CLAUSE.

Should the Insured's established or agreed liability for Compensatory Damages exceed the applicable Limit of Liability stated in the Schedule, the Companies will only pay that percentage of Supplementary Payments which that Limit of Liability bears to the amount of liability for Compensatory Damages.

Under no circumstances will the total of Supplementary Payments exceed an amount equal to 50% of the applicable Limit of Liability.

LIMITS OF LIABILITY CLAUSE

The limits of the Companies' liability directly or indirectly arising out of or in connection with any one Occurrence shall not exceed the Limit of Liability stated in the Schedule. All Occurrences directly or indirectly arising out of or in connection with one source or original cause shall be treated as one Occurrence, for all purposes relating to this Policy.

The limit of the Companies' total aggregate liability during the Period of Insurance for all claims arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with Occurrences involving the Insured's Products shall not exceed the designated Sub-Limit of Liability stated in the Schedule.

The Companies' total aggregate liability under this Policy in connection with all Occurrences involving Pollution shall not exceed the designated Sub-Limit of Liability stated in the Schedule.

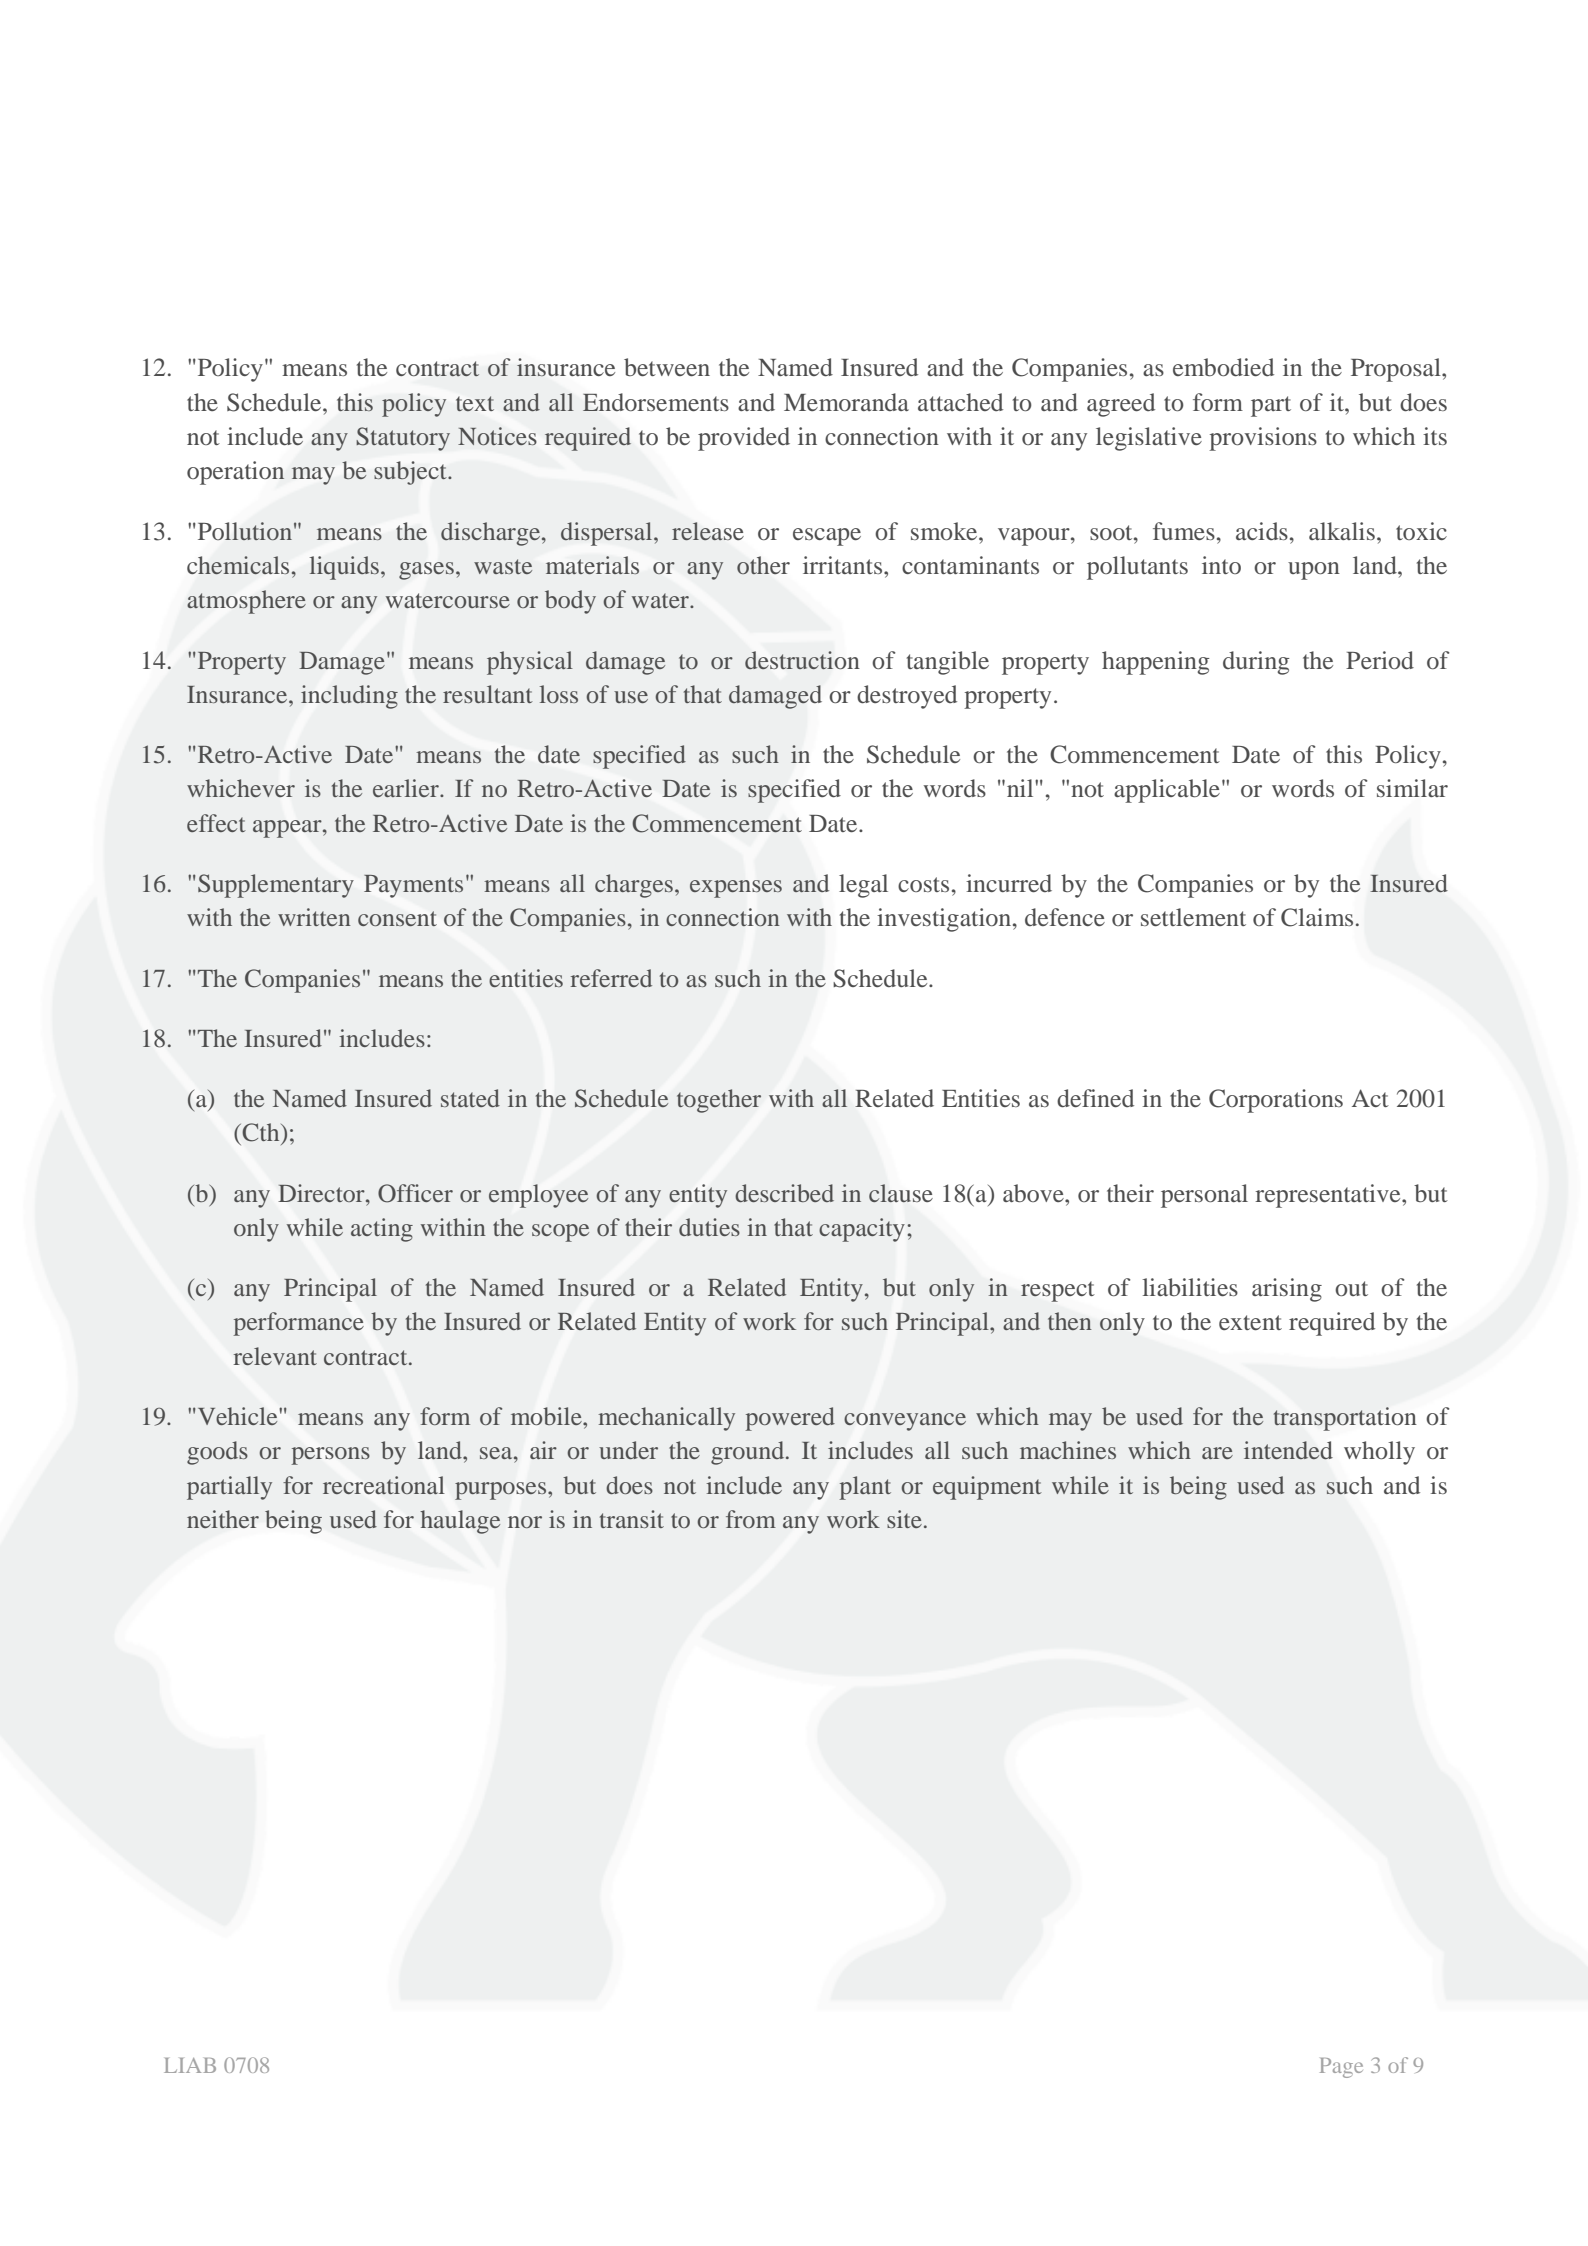

The Limit of Indemnity is the amount stated in the Schedule. This is the maximum amount the Insurer will pay in respect of any one Occurrence provided that, for all legal liability directly or indirectly arising out of Your Products, the Insurer's total aggregate liability during any one Period of Insurance will not exceed the Limit of Indemnity.

You must pay the amount shown in the Schedule as the Excess in respect of each claim.

CONDITIONS

1. The Insured must give written notice, to Robert Scally & Associates Limited on behalf of the Companies, of every claim against the Insured or Occurrence out of which a liability might reasonably be expected to arise, as soon as reasonably possible after the Insured itself becomes aware of that claim or Occurrence.
2. The Insured shall not without the Companies' consent in writing make any admission, offer, promise, payment or settlement in connection with any claim against it or alleged liability and the Companies, if they so desire, shall be entitled to take over and conduct on behalf of the Insured and in its name the investigation, defence, negotiation or settlement of any claim, in such manner and upon such terms as they may consider appropriate.
3. The Insured shall use their best endeavours to preserve any property, products, equipment or other evidence which might prove relevant, necessary or useful in connection with the investigation of any Occurrence or the negotiation, defence or settlement of any claim and, so far as may be reasonably practicable, no alteration, disposal or repair shall be effected without the Companies' consent, until the Companies have had full opportunity to inspect and preserve any evidence.
4. The Companies shall be subrogated to and shall be entitled to prosecute in the Insured's name, at their own expense and for their own benefit, any cause of action (including a claim for contribution or indemnity) which the Insured may have against any other person or organisation, arising out of any liability in respect of which indemnity for Compensatory Damages or a Supplementary Payment has been provided by the Companies under this Policy. It is not a requirement of the pursuit of subrogation, under this Condition, that actual payment first be made by the Companies.

The Insured shall do nothing to restrict, compromise, prejudice or limit the Companies' rights of subrogation after an Occurrence. If the Insured does anything of the sort, including entering into any compromise or release of liability with any other party, the Companies may adjust the indemnity for Compensatory Damages and any Supplementary Payments provided under this Policy by the monetary equivalent of the prejudice caused to them.

The Companies shall have first right to the proceeds of any such recovery action but shall account to the Insured for any amount which they may recover, in excess of the total amount of indemnity for Compensatory Damages and Supplementary Payments paid under this Policy, after deduction of the Companies' costs of recovery.

5. The Companies shall have full discretion in the conduct of the investigation, defence, negotiation or settlement of any Occurrence or legal proceedings, in connection with any claim by or against the Insured or any subrogation recovery, and the Insured shall provide all necessary information, cooperation and assistance as the Companies may reasonably require in connection with any claim or recovery. This shall be at the Insured's own expense, except that the Companies shall promptly reimburse the Insured for any out of pocket expenses, other than remuneration, lost profits or opportunity costs, incurred in the provision of such information, cooperation or assistance.
6. In the event of an Occurrence, the Insured shall promptly take at its own expense all reasonable steps to prevent or to mitigate Personal Injury or Property Damage, arising from that Occurrence or similar Occurrences, and to reduce the likelihood of a claim. Under no circumstance shall the expense of complying with this condition be recoverable under this Policy.
7. In respect of all Occurrences or claims by or against the Insured, directly or indirectly arising out of or in connection with one source or original cause, the Companies may at any time tender to the Insured the balance of the Limit of Liability in respect of those claims, or such lesser amount as the persons making claim against the Insured are willing to accept, at that time, in full and final settlement. The Companies shall then be under no further liability under this Policy in respect of those claims, except for:

- (a) charges, expenses and legal costs which may subsequently be recoverable from the Insured only in respect of the period prior to the date on which the Limit of Liability was tendered; and
 - (b) charges, expenses and legal costs incurred by the Insured, with the Companies' written consent, prior to that date.
8. The Insured shall take all reasonable precautions to prevent Personal Injury and Property Damage from arising out of or in connection with its Business, and shall comply with and ensure that its Employees, contractors, agents and other representatives comply with all statutory obligations, Codes, bylaws or regulations which may be applicable to the Business from time to time. In particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Insured shall at its own expense take all reasonable steps to trace, recall and/or modify any of its Products which it knows or has reason to suspect may contain any defect or deficiency which may render them injurious to persons or property, and shall comply promptly with all statutory obligations which may be imposed upon it in this regard.
 9. Each of the persons or entities comprising the Insured shall be treated, for the purposes of this Policy, separately and distinctly from all of the others and the word "Insured" shall be applied to them in the same manner as if a separate policy had been issued to each, however under no circumstances shall this Condition operate in such a manner as to increase the Companies' Limit of Liability or any Sub-Limits, beyond those which would apply if there were only a single Insured.
 10. This Policy also insures the liability of any Principal of the Insured, arising out of the performance by the Insured of any work for such Principal, but only to the extent required under the relevant contract and subject always to the Limits of Liability and to the other terms, Conditions and Exclusions of the Policy. In the case of any conflict between the terms of the relevant contract and this Policy, this Policy shall prevail.
 11. The Insured must ensure payment of the premium specified in the Schedule to the Companies within thirty days of the commencement of the Period of Insurance.
 12. The insured must provide the Companies, as soon as reasonably practicable, with written notice of every change which materially varies or alters any of the facts or circumstances, relating to any of the parties falling within the definition of the Insured or to the Insured's Business, as they were disclosed in the Proposal or known to the Companies at the commencement date of this Policy. This includes the entry by an Insured, after the commencement of the Policy, into any contract, arrangement or understanding which may limit its legal rights against any other party, to which the Companies might otherwise be subrogated.

In the event of such a material change, the Companies reserve the right to cancel or to amend the terms of this Policy, as they may consider appropriate, or to charge such additional premium as may be reasonable in the circumstances. If the Insured does not provide notice of a material change sufficiently before the happening of an Occurrence as to give the Companies adequate opportunity to exercise their rights under this Condition, the Companies may refuse coverage, in whole or in part, in respect of any liability arising out of that Occurrence.

13. In the event of any liability for which the Insured is entitled to coverage under this Policy and also under any other policy or policies, then in the event that the Insured elects to pursue its rights under this Policy the Insured must inform the Companies of the full details of all such other insurances, and must provide all reasonable assistance to the Companies in enforcing their rights to rateable contribution.
14. The Named Insured may cancel this Policy, on behalf of all other persons or entities falling within the definition of Insured or otherwise entitled to the benefit of the insurance, at any time by giving immediate written notice to Dominion Underwriting Agents Pty Limited, which shall receive it on behalf of the Companies. The Companies may cancel this Policy by giving three business days' notice in writing to the Named Insured, in any of the circumstances permitted by Section 60 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

In the event of cancellation by either party, the Companies may retain pro-rata premium for the time on risk. In the event of cancellation by the Insured, a penalty loading of 20% of the full adjusted annual premium will also apply. When the premium is subject to adjustment, cancellation by either party will not effect the Insured's obligation to supply such information as the Companies may reasonably require for the adjustment of the premium. Neither will cancellation effect the Insured's obligations to pay the amount of the adjustment, as applied to the pro-rata premium.

15. The Companies shall be permitted but not obliged to inspect the Insured's Business and operations at any time. Neither the Companies' right to make inspections nor the making of any inspection nor any report of an inspection shall constitute any form of undertaking, acknowledgement or representation regarding the safety or appropriateness of the Insured's Business or the manner in which it is being carried on, or a waiver of any of the Companies' other rights. The Companies may examine and audit the Insured's books and records at any time during the Period of Insurance, including any renewals or extensions of it, and within three years after the final renewal has concluded, in so far as they may relate to the subject matter of the insurance.
16. Should the premium for this Policy or any renewal have been calculated on estimates furnished by the Insured, and subject to adjustment at the end of the Period of Insurance, then the Insured must keep accurate records and all necessary evidence of all particulars required to enable the adjustment to be promptly and efficiently calculated, and must permit the Companies to inspect this evidence at such times and in such manner as they may reasonably require. Within thirty days of the expiry of each Period of Insurance the premium for which is subject to adjustment, the Named Insured shall furnish to Dominion Underwriting Agents Pty Limited, which shall receive it on behalf of the Companies, a statement containing full particulars and supporting information required to calculate the adjustment. The premium for the expired Period of Insurance shall then be adjusted accordingly and any extra premium or return premium required shall be paid by or credited to the Named Insured, as the case may be, within thirty days. Nothing in this Condition precludes the retention, by the Companies, of any minimum premium applicable to the relevant Period of Insurance.
17. This Policy shall, at all times and in all respects, be governed by and subject to the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia, including but not limited to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), and the Insured and the Companies agree to submit to the jurisdiction of competent Australian Courts in relation to all matters arising under or in connection with it. This Condition shall not preclude the parties from agreeing to submit any dispute to Arbitration, or to any other form of Alternative Dispute Resolution, after it has arisen.
18. To the extent that this policy provides indemnity to the Insured in respect of any demand, claim or proceeding made or brought within the legal or jurisdiction of the United States of America or Canada and subject to all other terms and conditions of this policy, such indemnity shall only be provided to the Insured on the basis that the limit of indemnity provided by an original policy comprises the Insured's maximum liability inclusive of all damages, compensation, interest, costs, expenses and payments of whatsoever nature, or so deemed.
19. Subject otherwise to the terms and conditions of the policy, additional damages resulting from the multiplication of compensatory damages and/or punitive damages and/or exemplary damages and/or aggravated damages determined against an insured
 - (a) under an original policy specifying that indemnity is provided for such damages or
 - (b) as part of any judgement award or settlement arising from any demand, claim or proceeding made or brought within the legal jurisdiction of the United States of America or Canada shall be excluded from recovery hereon.
