

EVENT PROPOSAL FORM

Please read this carefully before completing the Proposal.

About this notice This notice gives a précis summary of the important requirements, conditions and obligations which relate to the placement and operation of your insurance policy. Please read this notice carefully before completing your proposal.

Your Duty Of Disclosure Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Contracts Act, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters:

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-Disclosure. If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Utmost Good Faith Every insurance contract is subject to the doctrine of utmost good faith which requires that the parties to the contract should act towards each other with the utmost good faith. Failure to do so on your part may prejudice any claim or the continuation of cover provided by your insurer(s).

Average (underinsurance) Provisions (Applicable to material damage insurances: commercial, business, marine hull, computer electronic, machinery breakdown, aviation & domestic home). These policies often contain an Average/Co-insurance clause which means that you must insure for the full value of the property Insured. If you underinsure, your claim will be reduced in proportion to the amount of the underinsurance, therefore make sure your sums insured are adequate.

Rights Of Subrogation You may prejudice your rights with regard to a claim if, without prior agreement from your insurers, you enter into an agreement with a third party that prevents the insurer from recovering the loss from that, or another party. Your policies contain provisions which allow the insurer to recover their liability from the responsible party. Any agreement you enter into that excludes or limits your rights to recover damages from another party in relation to any loss, damage or destruction contravenes these provisions. If you have any such agreements, we may be able to negotiate with your insurer to permit them and therefore we request you to advise us of their existence. Examples of such agreements are the "hold harmless" clauses which are often found in lease agreements, maintenance and supply contracts pertaining to the installation and maintenance of fire protection systems and burglar alarms and in storage contracts.

Unnamed Parties Your policies may not provide insurance cover in respect of the interest of some other person or organisation who is not specifically named therein, irrespective of the sum(s) Insured. If you require the interest of a party other than the Named Insured to be insured, you must request this. Most policy conditions will exclude indemnity to other parties (e.g. mortgagees, lessors, principals, etc) unless their interest is properly noted on the policy.

Excess/Deductibles Excess or a Deductible is the first amount of each claim you are required to pay yourself, may not apply to each Part. Details of the Excess(es) applicable will be shown on the Schedule against the particular Section or Part.

Binder Notification In effecting this Contract of Insurance, any cover is accepted by DOMINION UNDERWRITING AGENTS PTY LIMITED (DOMINION) acting under the Binder authority given by the subscribing Underwriters and DOMINION is acting as Agent of the Insurers and not the Agent of you, the Insured. When we act under a binder we will be acting as the agent of the insurer. This means that we represent and act for the insurer, not for you.

DOMINION is authorised to issue, advise and deal in general insurance policies for both retail and wholesale clients'.

Claims Please advise us of any event likely to give rise to a claim as soon as practicable & notify the Police immediately if required. Do not admit liability or make any offer of settlement. You must take all reasonable precautions for the safety of the property insured and to prevent further loss or damage.

Claims occurring prior to commencement Your attention is drawn to the fact your Policy/ies may not provide indemnity in respect of events that occurred prior to the commencement of the contract.

Claims Settlements In dealing with or settling claims under this Contract of Insurance, DOMINION is acting under an authority given by the subscribing underwriters and DOMINION is dealing with or settling any claim as an agent of the subscribing Underwriters and not as the agent of you, the Insured.

Acceptance Of The Proposal The Insurance proposed on this Proposal will not be in force until the completed Proposal has been received and the risk accepted by the Insurer. The subscribing Underwriters reserve the right to decline any Proposal.

Cancellation By You Subject to any cancellation restriction, you may cancel your policy by providing your instructions in writing to your broker. In the event of cancellation of a policy before the expiry dated, some insurers make refunds of premium based on monthly or quarterly apportionments and therefore a minimum charge may apply.

Change of Risks or Circumstances It is vital that you should advise us of any departure from your "normal" form of business (i.e. that which has already been conveyed to your insurers). For example, acquisitions, changes in occupation or location, new products or new overseas activities. To ensure proper protection, please consult your broker if you are in any doubt as to whether your insurer should or should not be told of certain changes.
